LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a.) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

(f.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, lands, premises, or hereditaments or any interest therein, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient or that may be deemed necessary for the purpose of this business, and to sell, improve, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(g.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any part of the property or liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company, or to amalgamate with any existing company:

(h.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purpose of the Company:

(i.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest or for any other purpose to mortgage or charge the property of the Company or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate redeemable or perpetual debentures or debenture stock, bonds, promissory notes, bills of lading, bills of exchange, warrants, obligations, and other instruments:

(j.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined, and to take as security for the repayment of any loan real or personal property of any kind or description:

(k.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof upon such terms and for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and to distribute any or all of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(l.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

(m.) To divide any of the assets of the Company in kind among the members, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction, if any, for the time being required by law.

(a.) Logging, general timber-working, milling, and to handle all other goods, wholesale or retail, of a like nature which may be legally and conveniently handled to the general benefit of the Company:

(b.) To act as factors or agents for any person, persons, or corporation dealing in the materials and products above mentioned:

(c.) To purchase, lease, or acquire in any way whatsoever real estate or any interest therein or arising therefrom, and to sell, lease, exchange, encumber, or otherwise dispose of the same:

(d.) To construct, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire booms, tug-boats, gas-boats, row-boats, and scows; to operate truck routes and (or) logging-railroads as may be found profitable to the businesses hereinbefore mentioned, and to manage, sell, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the same:

(e.) To buy, sell, manufacture, let or hire, export, and deal in all kinds of articles and things which may be required for the purposes of any of the businesses hereinbefore mentioned, or commonly supplied or dealt in by persons engaged in such business, or which may be capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the said businesses:

(f.) To allot, credit as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the consideration or purchase price of any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered or other valuable consideration:

(g.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, patents, licences, brevets d'invention, concessions, contracts, agencies, or any other rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(h.) To lend money on any terms that may be thought fit, and particularly to customers, shareholders, or directors of this Company or other persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the contracts or engagements of any such persons, subject to the provisions of the "Insurance Act":

(i.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof in such manner and for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares (fully or partly paid up), debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any other company, whether promoted by this Company for the purpose or not, and to improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(j.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and by or through agents, sub-contractors, trustees, or otherwise:

(k.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this memorandum shall be deemed to include any partnership or any other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this memorandum shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

USE OF ABANDONED DITCH.

TAKE NOTICE that Frank Ackerman and John Keller, both of Barkerville, B.C., the owners of Placer-mining Leases Nos. 3590 and 3591 and applicants for a licence to take water from Empire Creek, all in the Cariboo Mining Division of British Columbia, intend to apply to the Gold Commissioner of the said Mining Division at Barkerville for the right to use an unnamed ditch situated in said mining division, and which runs from said Empire Creek about 3 miles north-easterly to said leases, which are situated about ½ mile south of the confluence of Murray Creek and Antler Creek. The said ditch is not in use and was constructed apparently for the purpose of working placer-mining holdings long abandoned or forfeited. The said ditch is needed for the development of said Placer-mining Leases Nos. 3590 and 3591.

Dated at Barkerville, B.C., this 3rd day of July, 1936.

FRANK ACKERMAN.
8941-jy9 JOHN KELLER.
